Dear All,

Greetings!

It is my distinctive pleasure to write to all of you on the behalf of the Indian National Bar Association (INBA)

INBA is India's fastest growing voluntary professional association. Representing the entire Legal ecosystem in India, INBA is dedicated to expand its member's professional network and industry insight. INBA Section for Law Students works as a voice of law students and organizes various activities which would help law students to improve their skills and become a seasoned professional.

To make the process more interesting and participative we announce the applications for Campus Ambassadors open and we believe that this step shall help us aim at greater inclusion and higher representation.

We hope to see your application and look forward to work in collaboration.

Thank You.

Regards,

Archana Aggarwal
