ABOUT THE WORLD TRADE INSTITUTE

The World Trade Institute (WTI) is a centre of excellence of the University of Bern and the Faculty of Law. It is one of the world's leading academic institutions dedicated to the regulation of international trade. The WTI transcends boundaries. It fuses law, economics and international relations in interdisciplinary research, training, advisory work and technical assistance in Switzerland and abroad. The WTI was the first, and is the most experienced institution in the world offering a specialised postgraduate degree in the law and economics of international trade regulation, through its flagship Master of International Law and Economics (MILE) programme. The WTI also runs a five-week Summer Academy in Bern on issues relating to investment and trade regulation. Additionally, it also jointly organises an annual Summer Programme on International Intellectual Property, with the Law Faculty of the Chinese University of Hong Kong, at Hong Kong.

ABOUT THE CENTRE FOR WTO STUDIES

The Centre for WTO Studies (Centre) was setup in 1999 by the Department of Commerce, Government of India, to serve as a permanent repository of WTO negotiations-related knowledge and documentation. The Centre has since evolved as an independent think-tank and knowledge centre with focus on trade in general, and the WTO in particular. The Centre has been a part of the Indian Institute of Foreign Trade since November 2002.

The activities undertaken by the Centre seek to achieve three broad objectives:

- ❖ To assist India's trade negotiators and policy makers in participating effectively in the WTO and at the related multilateral trade negotiations;
- ❖ To enhance the understanding of key trade issues among stakeholders through outreach and dissemination activities; and
- ❖ To develop capacities within India and in other developing countries for analysing WTO and other trade-related issues through training programmes.

PAST PARTICIPANTS' CORNER

The Joint Academy was, in short, a brilliant experience. We had the opportunity to learn from some of the most qualified professors on the subject, who introduced us to very practical methods of learning. We were also exposed to some interesting and stimulating discussions on more contemporary issues, which helped us gain a more holistic insight into the law.

- Antara S. Priya, B.A., LL.B (Hons.), NUJS Kolkata (1st Joint Academy)

The benefits I derived from the Academy are umpteen - learning with the best professors in the discipline, getting to know people working in the field of trade law and gaining knowledge about the kind of opportunities out there being a few. The course is strongly recommended for anyone interested in Trade Law or International Economic Law.

- Vatsal Vasudev, B.PSc.,LL.B(Hons.), NLU Jodhpur (1st Joint Academy)

In terms of what I've gained, I'd rate the academy at a 9.5/10. The rest is upto me to absorb as much as I can, but what the academy had to offer went beyond my expectations. I'd like to thank the organizers for all the efforts in making this such a grand success. I wish to pursue international trade law professionally now, and I owe it to the organizers for making that happen.

- Stuti Toshi, B.PSc.,LL.B(Hons.), HNLU Raipur(2nd Joint Academy)

The sessions were very insightful especially those pertaining to trade remedies. I would not have understood the intricacies underlying the calculation of the various duties if it were not for the Joint Academy. The Resource Persons and the organizers were a bundle of energy during the sessions and were extremely helpful to the participants.

- Nishi Jabeen, B.A.,LL.B(Hons.), Law Fac., Jamia Millia, Delhi(2nd Joint Academy)
