The Cell for Studies in Intellectual Property Rights (“CSIPR”) constituted under the MHRD Chair for The Ministry of Human Resource Development, Chair on Intellectual Property Laws at The National Law Institute University, Bhopal is organizing a National Conference on Limits to Intellectual Property Rights.

ABOUT CSIPR

The Cell for Studies in Intellectual Property Rights was incorporated under the aegis of Prof. (Dr.) Ghayur Alam at the National Law Institute University, Bhopal. Pursuant to its mission of promoting research and the sharing of ideas in the field of Intellectual Property Laws, the cell has undertaken to conduct an ever expanding array of activities. The cell publishes an annual journal titled the “NLIU Journal of Intellectual Property Law” and has also been actively involved in the organising of events in collaboration with the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The National Conference on Limits to Intellectual Property Rights will discuss the limitations to Intellectual Property Rights. The students are invited to present their papers relevant to this topic. The conference will see participation from eminent jurists and experts in the field.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

The National Law Institute University situated at Bhopal was established by the Act No. 41 of the State Legislature of Madhya Pradesh in 1997. Since its establishment, the institute has earned the status of a premier law school of the country which focuses on imparting quality legal education, conducting and encouraging research in varied areas of law and organizing workshops, seminars and training programs. In its brief journey of about a decade, it has been able to carve out a niche for itself in academic excellence and placement of its students. It now stands as one of the most reputed law universities in the country and has been consistently rated as such.

The key objectives of the University are to advance and disseminate learning and knowledge of law and legal processes and their role in national development, and to develop in the students and research scholars, a sense of responsibility to-wards serving society in the field of law by developing skills of advocacy and legal services.
