

Brief Bios of Principal Faculty for Certificate Course on “Patent Law Practices in the United States, India and China”

❖ Dean John Whealan, Associate Dean of Intellectual Property Law at The George Washington University Law School

Before joining GW Law in 2008, John M. Whealan worked at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) where he served as deputy general counsel for intellectual property law and solicitor since 2001. Dean Whealan represented the USPTO in all intellectual property litigation in federal court and advised the agency on a variety of policy issues. Prior to 2001, Dean Whealan was a staff attorney for the U.S. International Trade Commission where he litigated several investigations involving intellectual property matters.

For the past 10 years, he has taught as an adjunct professor of law at The Franklin Pierce Law Center and also has taught courses at George Mason University School of Law and Chicago-Kent College of Law.

❖ Hon. Randall R. Rader, Chief Judge (former), Court of Appeals of the Federal Circuit

Randall R. Rader was appointed to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit by President George H. W. Bush in 1990 and assumed the duties of Chief Circuit Judge on June 1, 2010 and retired from the bench on June 30, 2014. He was appointed to the United States Claims Court (now the U. S. Court of Federal Claims) by President Ronald W. Reagan in 1988. During his tenure as Chief Judge, he has rendered opinions in the following matters among a long list of other cases:

- Cornell Univ. v. Hewlett-Packard Co., 654 F. Supp. 2d 119, 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 37046 (N.D.N.Y, 2009)
- North Hartland, L.L.C. v. United States, 309 Fed. Appx. 389 (Fed. Cir. 2009)
- Eli Lilly & Co. v. Teva Pharms. USA, Inc., 619 F.3d 1329 (Fed. Cir. 2010)

Chief Judge Rader (former) has also co-authored several texts including the most widely used textbook on U. S. patent law, “Cases and Materials on Patent Law,” (St. Paul, Minn.: Thomson/West 3d ed. 2009) and “Patent Law in a Nutshell,” (St. Paul, Minn.: Thomson/West 2007) (translated into Chinese and Japanese).

He has taught courses on patent law and other advanced intellectual property courses at George Washington University Law School, University of Virginia School of Law, Georgetown University Law Center, the Munich Intellectual Property Law Center, and other university programs in Tokyo, Taipei, New Delhi, and Beijing.

❖ Prof. Huang Wushuang, Dean, IP School, East China University of Political Science and Law

Prof. Wushang is Vice President of the Institute of Intellectual Property Rights, East China University of Political Science and Law and Deputy Director of Intellectual Property Research Center. He serves in the panel of arbitrators in the Arbitration Commission, Shanghai. Prof. Wushang has provided expert comments on many disputes relating to IPR, unfair competition, real estate disputes, as well as other types of disputes.

Prof. Wushang is regularly invited to speak on the art of advocacy by the Bar and Bench, Government organizations and other institutions of repute. He has more than 50 publications on the Chinese Intellectual Property Law.

❖ Prof. Dr. Prabuddha Ganguli, Professor, Rajiv Gandhi School of IP Law, IIT Kharagpur

He is the CEO of his consulting firm "VISION-IPR" offering services in management of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR), information security and knowledge management. He is a leading international expert on IPR and a Consultant to the World Intellectual Property Organisation (WIPO) for IPR capacity building programmes in developing countries, an elected Fellow of the Maharashtra Academy of Sciences.

After several years in academic research, he worked in industry for 2 decades in diverse managerial roles including R&D, Technology Assessment, Forecasting and Transfer, Knowledge Management, Factory Management and Business Planning. He also holds the MHRD IPR chair Professorship at Tezpur University, Assam, and works as Honorary Scientific Consultant on Innovation and IPR Matters to the Office of the Principal Scientific Adviser, Government of India.

He has recently been elected as a Member of the Executive Council of the Intellectual Property Law Practitioners Association (IPLPA) in India. He is also Visiting Professor at the Rajiv Gandhi School of Intellectual Property Law, Indian Institute of Technology, Kharagpur, India.

❖ Dr. Raj S. Davé, GUJCOST IPR Chair, Gujarat National Law University, and Founder and President of Davé Law Group

Dr. Raj Davé is the President and Founder of Davé Law Group in the United States (www.davelawgroup.com). He is the Gujarat Council of Science and Technology (GUJCOST) Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) Chair Professor at Gujarat National Law University.

Dr. Davé focuses on intellectual property counseling, patent prosecution, dispute resolution, licensing, technology transactions, intellectual property mining and enforcement, reexamination and reissue practice, pre-litigation opinions and patent litigation. He has formed strategic alliances with major investment groups to finance patent litigation. Dr. Davé is an expert in bio-pharmaceuticals and represents several drug companies. He has also assembled a highly experienced team of experts from a cross-section of key practice areas, including FDA/regulatory, ANDA litigation, technology transactions, and trade secrets.