

RGNUL FINANCIAL AND MERCANTILE LAW REVIEW CALL FOR BLOGS FOR ITS NEW “SECTORAL SERIES”

The Editorial Board of the RGNUL Financial and Mercantile Law Review (RFMLR) invites blog posts from legal practitioners, academicians, research fellows, undergraduate students, postgraduate students, etc., for RFMLR Sidebar.

About the Review

RGNUL Financial and Mercantile Law Review was set up as an academic initiative to promote research and debate in areas of financial and economic law. The review looks to understand the legal paradigm prevalent in India and South East Asia and how it affects finance and other cross border mercantile activities. The journal aims at giving the opportunity to legal academia, research scholars, legal practitioners and students to publish work that is at the cutting edge of doctrinal, theoretical and empirical research.

About our new “Sectoral Series”

RFMLR is initiating a discourse on the sectors of Indian economy through the medium of blogs. The aim is to analyse each sector of economy vis-à-vis recent and projected policy changes. Beginning with the aviation sector, the series will shift its focus every three weeks. Our first theme is Ailing Aviation Sector: A Legal Perspective and some of the suggested sub-themes are:

1. Code-share Partnerships
2. Jet Airways Crisis: Demand Supply Imbalance
3. Employment at Stake: National Aviators’ Guild and Jet Airways
4. Air India Disinvestment
5. ATF Price Surge and Bio Jet Fuel

One best blog from each sector shall be featured under “Best Blogs of the Series”, as adjudicated by the Editorial Board.
