CONCEPT NOTE

DEBATE /ELOCUTION COMPETITION-"INTEGRITY A WAY OF LIFE "

5 NOVEMBER'2019

Success Will Come and Go, But Integrity Is Forever

Integrity is Aladin's miracle lamp, using which you can accomplish anything you desire. Integrity is the fruit on the tree of industry, perseverance, and dedication to excellence. James Allen, the great British author and philosopher in his book 'Eight Pillars of Prosperity' pays a glowing tribute to the principle of 'Integrity'. He says, "There is no striking a cheap bargain with prosperity. It must be purchased, not only with intelligent labor, but with moral force."

Integrity is what you do and how you conduct yourself when there is no one watching. The prosperity is the state of having good fortune, wealth and success. It is essentially related to peace, harmony and satisfaction. If you sow with integrity, you will definitely reap in prosperity.

As an individual, having integrity means:

- That your actions are consistent with your words;
- That you are trustworthy, reliable and honest;
- That you communicate honestly and openly;
- That you have appropriate values, and behaviours that reflect these values; and
- That you can admit mistakes and not be afraid to show you care

The Three Forms of Integrity:

According to Dan Coughlin, keynote speaker, management consultant and executive coach, there are three types of integrity:

1. Internal integrity – This is your integrity at the deepest level. Is your integrity just for show because it looks good, or do you truly live your life with integrity in mind? Internal integrity is about being able to do the right thing, even if no one is looking and even if you will receive absolutely no credit for doing so. Doing the right thing, even though it may be the harder option, even when no one else is looking, will really be a huge step towards ensuring that you live with integrity.
2. External integrity – This is what you portray to those around you. You have high external integrity when your actions are consistent with your thoughts and what you are saying. If you are saying one thing, but your actions say something else – you have some more work to do!
3. Image integrity – Similar to external integrity – this is the image of your integrity. Whilst you might outwardly be displaying the right actions and taking the right path, can these actions be thought of in any other way? Are you leaving your image open to interpretation? People have great imaginations. When we don't understand something, we are very quick to make assumptions and form beliefs about why something is occurring. Looking after your image integrity is about ensuring that none of your actions or words can be misconstrued.

Achieving prosperity without integrity is impossible. Only men of high integrity have the strength, creativity, and will to work tirelessly. Without industry and prolonged perseverance, prosperity remains only a mere dream. All the great achievers in the history of mankind have been men and women of impeccable integrity. Abraham Lincoln, Madam Curie, Louis Pasteur, Winston Churchill, Dr. Graham Bell, Einstein, Addison, Mahatma Gandhi, etc, have been men and women of high integrity. They achieved phenomenal success in their respective fields by applying the principle of integrity. People who wish to be truly successful, must make integrity a way of their life.

Involving and encouraging youth to join the motion of inculcation of integrity and make it a pathway in life . In pursuit of the vision of the Government of India to make a “New India” by the year 2022, which is the 75th anniversary of our independence, the Central Vigilance Commission as the apex integrity institution of the country, endeavors to promote integrity, transparency and accountability in public life. Observance of Vigilance Awareness Week every year is part of the multi-pronged approach of the Commission where a key strategy is to encourage all stakeholders to collectively participate in the every aspect and the fight against all odds in life and to raise public awareness. The commission has decided that this year the Vigilance Awareness Week would be observed on Tuesday, November 5 with the theme “INTEGRITY– A WAY OF LIFE”

The Commission has actively promoted the concept of “Integrity Pledge”. Integrity Pledge for Citizens for enlisting support and commitment is attached herewith.

What is debating?

Competitive debating is a fun activity akin to a game in which we examine ideas and policies with the aim of persuading people within an organized structure. It allows us, to consider the world around us by thinking about different arguments, engaging with opposing views and speaking strategically.

What exactly we are going to debate upon?

One thing on which we are unanimously agrees upon is “The supreme quality for leadership is unquestionable integrity.” Therefore it is high time to not only discuss but debate upon the various methods or path breaking suggestions from the different section of our society. These can be done, through different motions, proposition and arguments.

What makes a good debater?

Typically, judges decide how persuasive debaters have been through three key criteria:

1. Content: What we say and the arguments and examples we use.
2. Style: How we say it and the language and voice we use.
3. Strategy: How well we engage with the topic, respond to other people's arguments and structure what we say. all are really important while framing your speech.

Elocution Competition

Elocution and speech are two words that are commonly used in public speaking. Elocution refers to the manner of speaking, specifically the skill of clear and expressive speech. To better explain the fact about elocution, let's have a comparison with speech, where a speech is a spoken expression of ideas and opinions whereas elocution is the manner of delivering the speech.

What is Elocution?

The word elocution refers to one's manner of speaking. The term elocution is mainly used in reference to a speaker's manner of speech when speaking or reading aloud in public. It is an effective and socially acceptable way of speaking. Elocution can also refer to the study of public speaking, with particular attention paid to pronunciation, grammar, and style. Clear and expressive speech, distinct pronunciation, articulation, accent, emphasis, inflections, and gestures are key elements in elocution.
