INTRODUCTION

Department of Law, Prestige Institute of Management Gwalior is organizing National seminar on the topic “Environment Protection and Green Governance: Legal Issues and New Challenges”. The context is perennial as well as contemporary. In the recent times United Nations Organization has taken initiatives for Climate Emergency and the whole world is in distress. From the heartfelt appeal of Greta Thunberg at United Nations Climate Change Conference to assiduous efforts of water harvesting activist Amla Ruia of Rajasthan; from melting glaciers of Alaska due to global warming to extinction of wildlife due to raging fires of Amazon rainforest of Brazil, all these events instigating that It's now or never as it will jeopardize the very survival of life on mother earth. This seminar is an attempt to discuss and deliberate upon the contentious issues pertaining to delegates regarding Environment Protection and policy related attributes of good governance which often termed as Green Governance from the legal perspective upon which people avoid to speak generally due to lack of comprehension.

This seminar on “Environment Protection and Green Governance: Legal Issues and New Challenges” aims at bringing together students and professionals having interest in Environment Protection Laws along with providing them a platform to express their views or ideas on topics of general importance and also provide suggestions on various issues for a better development of Environmental Laws and Policies. This seminar covers an array of issues which will be discussed in front of the renowned panelists. In this seminar, delegates will have the pleasure of being a part of discussion on these issues of general importance. The Seminar will serve as a venue for both experts and students from different strata to come forward and share their knowledge and ideas with the world.
