About the Seminar

Sport has changed its identity from a leisure activity to a profession in the contemporary world. It is being pursued as a career and many successful events, series and brands are created in the sports world. There is tremendous commercial opportunity in the world of sports which also provides employment to many. Accordingly there is a need for involvement of exclusive law to govern its multiple dimensions keeping in mind the peculiarity of interests of all stakeholders. The Centre for Sports Law, Policy & Research through the “National E-Seminar on Issues and Challenges in Laws relating to Sports in India” proposes to provide a common platform for legal experts, academicians, researchers and students to bring out, discuss and deliberate on contemporary issues in law relating to sports and possible solutions for the resolutions of the same.

About Centre for Sports Law, Policy & Research

Sports Law is one of the few areas of law which is still in the developing stages. Earlier, sport was pursued as a hobby but in the present scenario it has become a dedicated profession and is also an area of business. The Centre for Sports Law, Policy & Research at JLU School of Law focuses on research and provides legal assistance with respect to the issues in existing laws and policies in India related to Sports as a profession as well as commercial activity. In the modern world, sports as a profession and Commercial activity generally interacts with various legal disciplines such as Constitutional Law, Law of Contract, Law of Torts, Criminal Law, Taxation Law, Labour Law, Competition Law, and Intellectual Property Rights. The Centre plans to conduct lectures, workshops, conferences on Sports Law and Policy.

About Centre for Business and Intellectual Property Laws

Intellectual property is the area of law that deals with protecting the rights of those who create original works. It covers everything from original plays and novels to inventions and company identification marks. The purpose of intellectual property laws is to encourage new technologies, artistic expressions and inventions while promoting economic growth. When individuals know that their creative work will be protected and that they can benefit from their labor, they are more likely to continue to produce things that create jobs, develop new technology, make processes more efficient, and create beauty in the world around us. There are three main mechanisms for protecting intellectual property: copyrights, patents and trademarks. Intellectual property management encompasses the creation, protection and exploitation of Intellectual Property Rights. Centre is regularly conducting extensive training programs, seminars, lectures by eminent personalities, faculty development programs, brainstorming sessions, etc. under the aegis of Jagran Lakecity University – School of Law.
