About Network for International Law Students (NILS) Delhi

The Network for International Law Students (NILS) Delhi Chapter is one of the many local Chapters of NILS India which is an international, independent, non-political, non-profit organisation, run by and for law students. NILS Delhi seeks to promote legal awareness, communication, and cooperation to publicize educational and career opportunities for law students nationally.

Call for Papers

Network for International Law Students (NILS) Delhi, in collaboration with International Journal for Legal Insight (IJLI), calls for papers for its first quarterly issue, with a common objective to promote and rejuvenate the habit of creative writing and research. Articles are invited from law students, research scholars, academicians and professionals in the form of original, unpublished articles, notes & comments and Legislative Briefs on contemporary issues of International Law. IJLI is an open ended/access double-blind peer reviewed law journal publishing quarterly issues focussing on all aspects of Law coupled with a wide range social, economic and political disciplines.

Theme

No rigid thematic constraints, we expect contributions to be largely within the rubric of legal studies and allied interdisciplinary scholarship.
