National Neg-Med Competition 2019

7th-8th
September 2019
at IFIM Law School

The first edition of CONCORDAT (Neg-Med Competition) aims at providing an avenue where students can experience two different forms of dispute resolution together.

A competition to sharpen students legal, negotiation and intellectual skills. In the first two rounds of the competition the participants will undergo a brainstorming exercise of using their negotiation skills to the fullest whereas in the last two rounds of the competition, their mediation skills would be put on test. Entire competition will be based on ONE DEAL whose different facets will evolve and become intricate with each passing round.
