RULES FOR CLIENT COUNSELING

1. Team Composition

- (i) Each team must consist of two participants only.
- (ii) The two participants may be from any of the 3 year or 5 year LLB & LLM course.

2. Competition Format

- (i) There shall be 3 Rounds of Counseling session.
The Preliminary Counseling Session.
The Semi-Finals; and

Two teams with highest score from the Semi-Finals will be selected for the Final Counseling Session.

Rules given below shall apply to both rounds.

(ii) Total time given will be:

30 minutes per team (for preliminary round),

35 minutes (for semi-finals)

40 minutes (for finals).

(iii) Each Counseling Session is divided into three parts:
Consultation,
Post-Consultation,
Critique.

Consultation:

- (i) The consultation period shall be for 21 minutes.
- (ii) The time period will start from the moment the client enters the chamber.
- (iii) The time period is meant to be used for inter alia consultation with the client during which participants are expected to elicit the relevant information, outline the problem, find the clients expectations and propose a solution or other means of resolving the problem.
- (iv) During the consultation and post-consultation, the team may use books, notes and other materials.
- (v) The time period is to be strictly adhered to but the judges may, in case of any reasonable circumstances provide an extra one minute to the team after which the client would necessarily leave and the post-consultation period would begin.
- (vi) If the extended consultation session allowed an opportunity for a team to gather more information than other teams, this circumstance should be taken into consideration by the judges in making their decision. Judges may, in their discretion, penalize teams that allow the interview session to run longer than the stipulated time period.

Post Consultation:

- (i) The time period for post consultation is 5 minutes.
- (ii) In the post-consultation period the participants may talk to each other loudly so as to be audible to the judges or may indirectly address them in any other manner.
- (iii) Participants may summarize the interview, indicate the scope of the legal work to be undertaken, and state the legal issues that should be researched. Explanation of the position or attitude taken by the students may be useful.
- (iv) If the students feel that some documents are appropriate, like a letter to the client confirming their retention as attorneys, the fee arrangement etc, or a letter to 2 opposing counsel or to the party with whom the client is having their legal problems etc., they may dictate such a document at the post consultation stage.
- (v) At the completion of the time period of Post-Consultation the time Keeper shall stop the participants or signal them to stop in an obvious manner. Failure of the participants to comply with the above rule will attract negative marking as prescribed by the Organizer to the judges.

Critique:

- (i) After the completion of the Post-Consultation period the judges may question the participants on matters deliberated upon or mentioned by the participants or the client during the consultation of post-consultation period.
- (ii) The judges may ask any question which they consider material and questions meant to test the participants understanding of the facts and/or law applicable or applied by the participants in the case.
- (iii) The time period for this session is 4 minutes and the judges may extend it at their discretion.

Semi-finals:

Same rules to be applied but the total time allowed will be 35 minutes divided as follows:

Consultation: 24 minutes

Post consultation: 6 minutes
