ABOUT CAMPUS LAW CENTRE, UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

The Campus Law Centre, Faculty of Law, University of Delhi, is a legal institution par excellence, representing a heterogeneous and diverse set of values, opinions, and ideas. Established in 1924, CLC provides world class legal education at a nominal cost. CLC took the lead in adorning our liberty with a self-sufficient legal education system by introducing a distinguished Tark-Vitark (Debate and Discussion) method of teaching, a time-tested teaching methodology prevalent in the ancient India, through precedents themselves, with the goal of transforming students into budding lawyers. CLC has proved its mettle by producing illustrious luminaries panning across Supreme Court and High Court judges, leading advocates, political leaders, policymakers, and trend-setters in all walks of life.

ABOUT DEBATE AND DISCUSSIONS SOCIETY

When a discussion is the ethos of an Institution, Debate & Discussions Society (DDS) becomes a natural facilitator to the spirited culture of indulging in constructive dialogues. The Society not only conducts debates & discussions but also promotes free thought & opinion exchange. It marks and celebrates the significance of deliberations and purposeful exchange of ideas as an instrumentality of positive change & growth.

ABOUT THE EVENT

The Youth Parliament is a recreation of the parliamentary proceedings of legislature and executive, based upon the Indian Parliamentary system. In the Youth Parliament, participants role-play members of parliament followed by discussing an entire gamut of social, legal, geopolitical and economic issues. The aim of Inter- Youth Parliament is to acquaint the participants about the functioning of the parliament which primarily has three functions: representing the electorate, making laws, and overseeing the government. It is the place where legislators structure policies, frame laws, discuss and debate on issues that aspects the lives of many. It seeks to enhance and strengthen the socio-political, socio-legal, socio-economic fabric of our country.

WHY THIS COMPETITION

Youth Parliament is crucial for students as it promotes the idea of “Assemble, Argue, and Evaluate.” By encouraging debate and predicting outcomes, it promotes democracy, growth, and the maintenance of democratic institutions. It promotes the concept of “Learning by Doing,” which is crucial in deciding how to become more informed as a citizen, regardless of whether politics is involved. The participants are given a stable platform to learn or develop a variety of talents, including debate, public speaking, presentations, research, and organisational abilities, which supports their personal growth. For both participants and observers, it is a fulfilling, enduring, and an educational experience.
