About the FDP

Research is a process of systematic inquiry that entails re-examination of exiting facts and literature; collection of data; and analysis and interpretation of that data in accordance with appropriate methodologies. With the advent of the National Education Policy, 2020 which is aimed at revolutionizing the education system in the country by emphasizing on a multidisciplinary approach in education; there are new challenges arising in academia calling for collaborative research in several disciplines using innovative research tools and techniques. Also, in an epoch of growing academic engagement that mandates having contemporary knowledge of several disciplines under one subject, it is imperative to understand the nuances of multidisciplinary research for constructively engaging with academe and partake quality, futuristic and outcome-oriented research.

Keeping in view the importance of multidisciplinary research, this FDP is being organized for the faculty members and research scholars to acquaint them with emerging issues and challenges related to research in different disciplines, and to impart to them hands-on training on learning methods of sampling, data collection, and data analysis using recent software like SPSS etc.

Aims and Objectives of FDP:

The aim and objectives of this FDP are: -

1. To provide an understanding of the importance of multidisciplinary research in enhancing the quality of outcome-based education and publications.
2. To acquaint the participants with the contemporary issues and challenges in both doctrinal and non-doctrinal research.
3. To provide firsthand practical experience of learning methods of sampling, data collection, and data analysis using recent software like SPSS.
4. To have a good understanding of developing research proposals for projects using empirical and doctrinal research.
5. To have an understanding of research ethics and reporting of research findings.

Proposed Outcomes:

After completion of this FDP: -

1. The participants will be able to explore the emerging challenges in multidisciplinary research, teaching, and learning.
2. The participants will be able to identify upcoming research areas across various specializations and fields of research.
3. The participants would be able to learn different tools for analysis and interpretation of data.
