CALL FOR PAPERS

ABOUT SRM UNIVERSITY DELHI-NCR, SONEPAT, HARYANA (“SRMUH”)

SRM University Delhi-NCR Haryana (SRMUH) carries forward the legacy of SRM Group of Institutions. SRM’s initiative towards the cause of quality education began in 1969 with the establishment of a primary school and today after five decades of its existence it has 22 institutions and 4 Universities. SRMUH was established as a State Private University under the Haryana Private Universities Act, 2006 (as amended by Haryana Act No. 8 of 2013), in furtherance of the objective of the SRM group to reach out to a greater number of stakeholders in Northern India. The University aims to emerge as a leading world-class educational institution that disseminates knowledge upholding the highest standards of instruction in all fields of study. Along with academic excellence and skills, the University curriculum is developed in a manner to impart experiential learning & life-skills, and, ensures that learners are exposed to various activities, which instil in them social sensitivity, compassion, patriotism, moral, and ethical integrity. Accordingly, when the learners graduate, they emerge as citizens who are best suited to serve society and also undertake various leadership duties.

ABOUT FACULTY OF LAW, SRMUH

Faculty of Law is one of faculties at the vibrant SRMUH family which offers professional courses recognized by the Bar Council of India (BCI). As a Centre of Excellence in Law, we further the vision of our university to “emerge as a leading world-class university that creates and disseminates knowledge upholding the highest standards of instructions. Along with academic excellence and skills, our curricula impart integrity and social sensitivity to transform our graduates who are best suited to serve the nation and the world”. Studying in a multidisciplinary university offers several opportunities to our students to collaborate with other faculties and departments on projects, skill-based courses and assignments.

As per the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, “Legal education needs to be competitive globally, adopting best practices and embracing new technologies for wider access to and timely delivery of justice”. Technology has impacted every sector so is the legal profession. Today’s professionals shall be aware about the interface of Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Machine Learning. We offer exposure to these courses through our Computer Science Department. Our curricula reflect this vision of NEP as well as the latest developments in the legal sector. We at the Faculty of Law cater to a diverse group of students especially focusing upon curating their life skills ready for competitive legal profession.

SRMUH Law Review

The SRMUH LAW REVIEW (SRMLR) is the journal of the Faculty of Law at SRM University Delhi-NCR Sonapat. SRMLR has the aim to further the legal scholarship by publishing original articles from scholars and professionals in the field. Exceptional writings from students of law may also be accepted by the Editorial Team. The Journal aspire to provide exhaustive analysis, discussion, and insight into the ever-evolving landscape of legal issues and is dedicated to explore and catalyse legal developments in today’s dynamic global landscape. The objective of the Journal is to initiate deliberations on emerging social, ethical and legal concerns in the context of contemporary social, political, and technological realities.

CALL FOR PAPERS

This Inaugural Issue of the Journal is being launched at the inception of ‘Amrit Kaal’ and towards culmination of the celebrations of ‘Aazadi ka Amrit Mahotsav’. India is looking forward to set its aspiration of developed India@100 and a robust legal framework and its implementation would be the key. The theme of this volume would be to cover analysis and debates around contemporary legal issues, encompassing a broad range of topics that are at the forefront of legal debates and developments.

Union Budget 2023-24 presented by the Union Minister of Finance and Corporate Affairs outlined the vision of Amrit Kaal which shall reflect an empowered and inclusive economy. She said, “We envision a prosperous and inclusive India, in which the fruits of development reach all regions and citizens, especially our youth, women, farmers, OBCs, Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes”. It was further pointed out “The Government’s philosophy of Sabka Saath Sabka Vikas has facilitated inclusive development covering in specific, farmers, women, youth, OBCs, Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, divyangjan and economically weaker sections, and overall priority for the underprivileged (vanchiton ko variyata).” This volume would like to explore the legal dimensions national and international of the areas highlighted and also the ones not highlighted in the above statements.

We invite researchers, scholars, practitioners, and experts in the field of law or interested researchers from other discipline to contribute their original research articles, case studies, and critical analyses.
