Message from the Vice-Chancellor

Dear Participants,

Warm greetings from the Rashtriya Raksha University!

Rashtriya Raksha University, being an eminent Institution of National Importance is contributing to India's vision of an emerging, peaceful and prosperous economy based on the integrity, prosperity and the rule of law. It gives me immense pleasure, to announce the 1st RRU National Moot Court Competition 2023, to be organized by the School of National Security and Law. The School is achieving newer heights by each passing day by promoting and implementing an enriching learning experience replete with practical facets of the profession, to build a pool of self-sufficient legal professionals who shall serve the cause of national security. The said event shall lay the plinth for laying a strong foundation of the mooting culture at RRU.

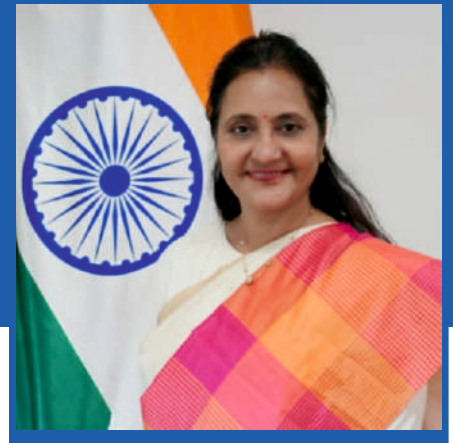

I am glad to share that the event shall be in line with the upcoming G20 Summit to be proudly hosted by India. More so, as a member of the UN International Law Commission, one of the critical issues that comes at our hand is the prevention and mitigation of financial frauds across the globe. Thus, from a national security perspective, economic security of a state becomes an important element of modern-day governance so as to keep check on the money laundering, corruption, forgery etc. Accordingly, the theme of the Competition has been identified as the Economic and Financial Security of India, so as to shed some light on the important facets of the same, contribute towards the related policy making by robust brainstorming.

India seeks to become a self-sufficient economy of the world as we enter the AmritKal@2047, I am confident that Rashtriya Raksha University shall become a harbinger of contributing academic acumen towards law enforcement specifically and national security as a whole.

I heartily congratulate the team of School of National Security and Law.

All the very Best. Jai Hind!

School of National Security and Law

Message from the Director's Desk

Dear Participants,

Greetings from the School of National Security and Law!

Rashtriya Raksha University, being an eminent Institution of National Importance is contributing to India's vision of an emerging, peaceful and prosperous economy based on the integrity, prosperity and the rule of law. Each School at RRU is committed to identify, strategize and curate the intricate elements of national security, through continuous enhancement and development of academics, research and training targeted at students, security personnel, and policy makers from across the globe.

We at the School of National Security and Law (SNSL), aim to become the harbinger of producing a cadre of legal professionals who are enriched with legal acumen, robust research ability and advocacy skills. These professionals shall promote the cause of national security coupled with the emerging areas of law, technology and socio-economic development of the country.

In line with our vision and mission, it gives me immense pleasure to announce the 1st RRU National Moot Court Competition 2023 [RNMCC'23], to be organized by our School. Mooting being an intricate part of legal curriculum across the globe, it becomes our responsibility to promote the same and this competition intends to become a coveted national event.

It shall spearhead the promotion of critical and analytical thinking, advocacy skills and overall legal awareness about various aspects relating to Economic and Financial Security of India. Unlike traditional moot court competition, the theme of RNMCC'23 is extremely critical and relevant incorporating significant issues plaguing the nation such as money laundering, corruption, and terror financing etc.

We invite institutions to participate in the said competition whole-heartedly. SNSL looks forward to hosting various teams that shall be visiting Rashtriya Raksha University.

Jai Hind!

About School of National Security and Law (SNSL)

The School of National Security and Law (SNSL) aims to establish itself as a premier legal institution in the domain of Criminal and National Security Laws. It endeavours to achieve excellence by not just providing a well-rounded legal education but also advancing legal scholarship, engaging incapacity building, serving the public and fostering justice.

The curriculum amalgamates theory with practise, keeping in mind the security needs in a much more globalized world. Taking a more holistic approach, the curriculum equips the students with the knowledge as well as helps them develop the skills necessary to use that knowledge in practice. The School endeavours to take teaching beyond classrooms and exposes students to the practical nuances related to Criminal and Security Law.

The School envisions to operate in accordance with global best practices and industry standards of legal education through research, innovation and extension activities for the advancement and dissemination of resourceful knowledge, research, training and scholarship in criminal and security laws. The School is also committed to the cause of furthering public safety as well as facilitating access to justice by offering Pro Bono and Legal Aid services with a view to developing human capital with the highest ideals of citizenship and citizen-centric services. Central to the School's vision is working towards the empowerment of women, weaker sections, and minorities, by endowing them with the requisite intellectual acumen, moral dedication and professional competence to tackle the challenges of crime, justice and public security in the contemporary society.

About The Competition

Mooting is a form of an oral proceeding similar to that of a court proceeding practiced mainly in institutions and universities where law as a subject is taught to see how efficient a student is in fighting an argument based on law. Mooting helps in the overall development of an individual as a good and proficient lawyer and participating in Moot Court Competition regularly makes a student familiar with the proceedings that take place generally in real courtrooms. The advantages of mooting include: Research and Writing Skills, Practical Knowledge, Team Work and Communication Skills.

The National Moot Court Competition organized by SNSL, RRU aims to bring together some of the finest and brightest law students in India who are inclined towards Criminal and Security Laws.

In consonance with the aim of the Rashtriya Raksha University to create a cadre of legal professionals who are dedicated to the cause of security and law enforcement, the 1st RRU National Moot Court Competition shall be the first-of-its-kind in India to focus on the domain of national security and criminal justice.

The competition aims to grow and become one of the coveted mooting events across the law Schools across the country.

Theme

- India is one of the top economies of the world, powered by digitization and the advent of technology. Similarly, every nation state is striving hard to achieve the said status, and on the path leading to it all these global entities are facing a spike in financial fraud and increased terror financing. There is a global consensus to give impetus to the economic and financial security of every nation, and India is leaving no stone unturned for ensuring the same.
- Accordingly, the Competition has been themed on the Economic and Financial Security of India dealing with allied aspects of terror financing, and misuse of technology, so as to promote a detailed thought process to address the current and upcoming challenges in the said domain. Thus, promoting policy discussion on financial security by way of this moot court competition, shall not only address India's demand to be an economically secure nation but shall also lead to tangible outcomes and policy discussion with respect to the global economy.
