AMITY LAW SCHOOL, NOIDA, AUUP

Amity Law School, Noida, AUUP is an institution of high repute that has always channelled its resources wisely into providing high quality legal education and ensures other developmental opportunities are made available to the students. Established on November 3, 2004, the Institute is dedicated to preparing students for legal practice by providing them with clinical legal training so that they can enter the legal profession with the confidence and knowledge they need. Amity Law School's motto, "Second to None" aspires to strive for excellence in all scholastic and co-scholastic areas. ALS, Noida aims to bridge the gap between theoretical and practical application of legal knowledge by encouraging group and co-teaching. Its unique mentoring system helps students connect with teachers and seek help and guidance from them when needed.

COMPETITION COMMISSION OF INDIA (CCI)

Competition is the best means of ensuring that the 'Common Man' or 'Aam Aadmi' has access to the broadest range of goods and services at the most competitive prices. With increased competition, producers will have maximum incentive to innovate and specialize. The Competition Act, 2002, as amended by the Competition (Amendment) Act, 2007, follows the philosophy of modern competition laws. The Act prohibits anti-competitive agreements, abuse of dominant position by enterprises and regulates combinations (acquisition, acquiring of control and M&A), which causes or likely to cause an appreciable adverse effect on competition within India

ABOUT THE FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME (FDP)

In India, the competition law frame work has emerged from being governed by the erstwhile Monopolistic and Restrictive Trade Practice (MRTP) Act, 1969 to the current Competition Act, 2002. The MRTP Act was framed on the basis of socialistic ideas and philosophies which is an essential element of Directive Principles of State Policy. However, the MRTP Act did not envisage effective measures against the public sector companies and was unfairly more restrictive to the private sector. Therefore, The Competition Act, 2002 was introduced to cover the inadequacies of MRTP Act.

OBJECTIVES

1. To provide, keeping in view the economic development of the country, the need for the establishment of a commission.
2. To prevent practices having adverse effect on Competition.
3. To promote and sustain competition in market.
4. To protect the interest of consumers and to ensure freedom of trade carried on by other participants in market.
5. To provide general observation of competition laws as when they are enacted and the laws are tested in specific areas of economy and management.

OUTCOMES

1. To familiarize the participants with the knowledge of Competition law in the light of growing economy and management.
2. To bring together leading academicians, researchers and scholars to share experiences and opinion on quality assurance and the emergence of new economy.
3. To provide a forum for faculty, staff and research scholars to deliberate on various global challenges and opportunities in institutional development.
4. Improve and add upon the existing knowledge on Competition Law.
5. To induce pristine analysis and perspectives on the subject matter from the above discourse.
