

Call For Chapters

for the book titled

“A Greener Future: Navigating the Intersection of Law & Environmental Sustainability”

ABOUT THE BOOK

The book intricately explores the synergy between legal frameworks and the imperative for environmental sustainability. This insightful book meticulously dissects the role of law in shaping sustainable practices, shedding light on how legal systems influence industries, communities, and individual behaviors. Through real-world examples and case studies, it goes beyond theoretical discourse, offering a nuanced understanding of the practical implications of environmental law. With a focus on the dynamic interplay between legal structures and environmental challenges, the book serves as an invaluable resource for policymakers, legal professionals, and advocates dedicated to forging a sustainable future.

SUB-THEMES

Original contributions from the authors are invited on the following topics (Not Limited to)

- ★ Climate Change Mitigation and Adaptation Strategies
- ★ Impacts of Fossil Fuel Extraction and Energy Transitions
- ★ Legal Challenges of Geoengineering and Climate Intervention
- ★ Biodiversity and Conservation Law
- ★ Intersection of Water Law and Environmental Sustainability
- ★ Legal Strategies for Addressing Climate Displacement and Migration
- ★ Legal Challenges of Geoengineering and Climate Intervention
- ★ Food Security and Agricultural Sustainability

OUR GUEST EDITOR

Prof. (Dr.) Namita Jain
Head of Department
SOL, JECRC University, Jaipur

OUR EDITOR

Prof. Nidhi Singh
SOL, JECRC University, Jaipur

Prof. Jyotirmoy Banerjee
Indian Institute of Management Rohtak

Abstract Submission	Dec. 20, 2023
Abstract Acceptance Notification	Dec. 25, 2023
Full Chapter Submission	Jan. 25, 2024
Acceptance/Revision Notification	Jan. 27, 2024
Revised Chapter Submission	Jan. 31, 2024
Tentative Book Publication	March - April 2024

Important Links

Guidelines for Book Chapter Contribution can be Located at www.lamp.lexassisto.com/book-chapter
All Submissions & Queries must be directed to submission.environmentlaw@gmail.com

For More Details Visit or Call Us At

www.lamp.lexassisto.com/book-chapter | +91 9470986311

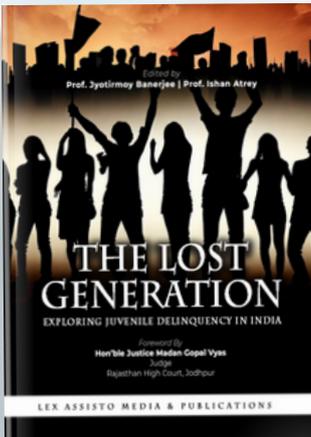

IMPORTANT POINTS TO CONSIDER

- Plagiarism must not exceed 10%.
- The Chapter shall be within 3000 to 3500 words.
- Plagiarism Check shall be done using Turnitin.
- The Book shall consist of ISBN Number.
- There is NO Publication/ Submission Charge for contributing Chapter for the Book.

Our Previous Publications

Lex Assisto
Media & Publications

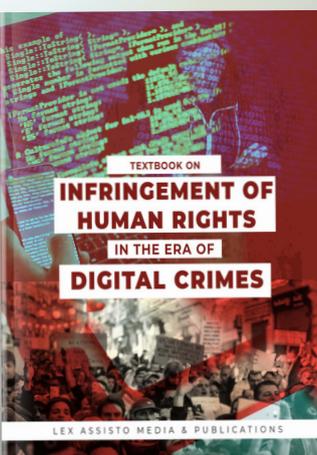

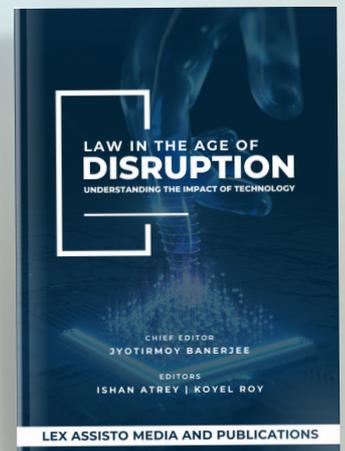

The Lost Generation: Exploring Juvenile Delinquency in India

The book stands as a comprehensive exploration of the complex issue of juvenile delinquency, offering insights from over 60 authors hailing from diverse national and international backgrounds. This collaborative effort sheds light on the challenges and nuances surrounding youth crime in India. Notably, the book carries the esteemed endorsement of Hon'ble Justice Madan Gopal Vyas, a respected figure in the legal realm as a Judge at the Rajasthan High Court. With its wealth of perspectives and the backing of a seasoned legal authority, the book serves as a significant contribution to the discourse on juvenile delinquency in the Indian context.

Law In The Age of Disruption: Understanding the Impact of Technology

The book emerged as a pivotal work with insights from 45+ authors spanning national and international expertise. This collaborative effort delves into the intricate intersection of law and technology, unraveling the profound impact of disruptive innovations. The book gains further credibility with the forward by Dr. Amandeep Singh Kapoor, IPS Director at CDTI, Jaipur, Bureau of Police Research & Development, Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India. Dr. Kapoor's endorsement underscores the relevance of this comprehensive exploration, positioning it as a crucial resource for navigating the legal challenges posed by the rapidly evolving landscape of technology.

Textbook on Infringement of Human Rights in the Era of Digital Crimes

This book is a collaborative masterpiece featuring the insights of 55+ authors from diverse national and international backgrounds. Under the astute editorship of Dr. S. Krishnan, Associate Professor at Seedling School of Law and Governance, Jaipur National University, Jaipur, the book navigates the complex terrain of human rights violations in the digital age. This comprehensive work is a vital resource for understanding the multifaceted challenges posed by digital crimes, offering a collective wisdom that spans geographical and disciplinary boundaries. Dr. Krishnan's stewardship adds academic rigor, making this textbook an indispensable guide in the realm of digital rights and responsibilities.

INITIATE YOUR BOOK WITH US TODAY

FOR MORE DETAILS

Adv. Piyush Jalan
+91-9470986311

Prof. Jyotirmoy Banerjee
+91-6378258308

lexassistopublication@gmail.com

www.lamp.lexassisto.in