About the Conference

In today's time, Science and Technology have made considerable progress. New advanced technological frontiers are being explored with each passing day. The earlier unimaginable arenas now seem conceivable and within reach. Such is the pervasiveness of technology that today there is hardly any field which remains untouched by technological advancement. The pertinence of the technology can be gauged by its ubiquitousness, be it in the fields of education, security, travel, lifestyle etc.

Law and technology have a symbiotic relationship which continues to define interactions in the modern landscape. As technological advancements accelerate at an unprecedented pace, legal systems around the world grapple with the challenges and opportunities they present. There is a dire need for law to adapt to and address novel challenges such as data privacy, cybersecurity, artificial intelligence, and digital intellectual property. Achieving a balance between innovation and regulatory framework becomes all the more pertinent to addressing these modern-day challenges. The intersection of law and technology not only requires the establishment of comprehensive regulations but also demands ongoing legal education to empower professionals to navigate this complex terrain effectively. Thus, the deliberations in this field are the urgent need of the hour and the said conference aims to initiate a dialogue in this crucial area.
