DR. B. R. AMBEDKAR HALL,

ALIGARH MUSLIM UNIVERSITY

About Aligarh Muslim University: A Beacon of Education and Culture.

Aligarh Muslim University (AMU) occupies a unique position amongst universities and institutions of higher learning in the country. It was established in 1920 and evolved out of the Mohammedan Anglo-Oriental (MAO) which was set up on 7 January 1877 by the great visionary and social reformer, Sir Syed Ahmad Khan. From its very inception, it has kept its door open to the members of all communities and from all corners of the country and the world. The Aligarh Muslim University is the realization of a vision which was broad, far-reaching and realistic.

Here's a glimpse into what makes AMU unique:

Rich History and Legacy: With over 140 years of academic excellence, AMU boasts a distinguished alumni network including scholars, politicians, and cultural icons. Its historical campus, reminiscent of Mughal architecture, reflects its rich heritage.

Diverse Academics: AMU offers a wide range of undergraduate, postgraduate, and research programs across 13 faculties, including Arts, Sciences, Engineering, Medicine, Law, and Theology. It caters to students not only from India but also from various countries across Asia and Africa.

Inclusive Environment: True to its founder's vision, AMU promotes inclusivity and welcomes students from all backgrounds and religions. It offers a vibrant campus life with various cultural and social activities.

Research and Innovation: AMU actively fosters research and innovation in various fields. Its numerous research centers and collaborations with national and international institutions contribute significantly to scholarly advancements.

Global Recognition: AMU is recognized by national and international accreditation bodies. It consistently ranks among the top universities in India and enjoys a good reputation globally.

Beyond academics, AMU is known for:

Beautiful Campus: Sprawling over 270 hectares, the AMU campus is a blend of historical architecture, lush greenery, and modern facilities, creating a unique learning environment.

Cultural Hub: AMU hosts various cultural events, festivals, and conferences, celebrating diversity and enriching the campus life.

Sports Facilities: The university boasts excellent sports infrastructure, encouraging participation in various athletic activities.
