GENERAL PUBLIC NOTICE

Updated List of Centres of Legal Education which are prohibited from taking admission in Law Degree Courses for the Academic Session 2026-2027 and subsequent academic sessions until further notice

It is hereby notified, for information of all concerned, including students, parents, universities, State authorities, and the general public, that the Centres of Legal Education mentioned in the list below shall not take admission in any Law Degree Course for the Academic Session 2026-2027 and thereafter until further notice.

This public notice is being issued on the basis of reports and material received in relation to serious and glaring deficiencies noticed during surprise inspections conducted by the High Level Surprise Inspection Team, chaired by former Judges of High Courts and comprising eminent law academicians. The inspection findings have thereafter been examined and considered by the High Level Surprise Inspection Committee, chaired by a former Chief Justice of a High Court, who is also the Co-Chairman of the Legal Education Committee and the Standing Committee on Legal Education.

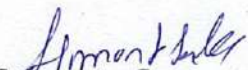

It is further made clear that separate communications/letters shall be issued to the concerned institutions in due course, setting out the deficiencies and shortcomings found in their respective cases, as noticed in the inspection process and as considered by the aforesaid High Level Surprise Inspection Committee.

This notice is being issued in the larger interest of maintaining standards of legal education and to ensure that students and the general public are not misled or prejudiced.

NOTE: The institutions included in this list shall not admit students in any law degree course for the Academic Session 2026-2027 and subsequent academic sessions until further notice from the Bar Council of India. This list shall remain subject to revision, updation, inclusion, or deletion from time to time on the basis of further inspection reports, materials received, and decisions taken by the competent body/bodies of the Bar Council of India.
